Diverse Experience

The companies we administer for our clients are used for many purposes: portfolio investment, trading, property investment, patent, royalty and copyright holding, ship and aircraft ownership and financing, asset-based lending, and long-term project financing. We also administer companies used by expatriates, entertainers, sportspersons and professionals as part of their international planning.

Redomiciliation

An increasing number of corporate domiciles now permit in their corporate laws both the inbound and outbound change of corporate domicile. Our global team is experienced in the smooth migration of companies from one jurisdiction to another.

Agent for Service of Process

Our specialist team is able to act as the designated recipient for legal correspondence on behalf of the business entity within the jurisdiction in which it is located.

Company Searches

Our corporate information service helps institutions and professionals undertake due diligence on companies registered in many of the leading international corporate domiciles.
