

Your Right To Financial Privacy Trusts

At Trident Trust Company (South Dakota) Inc (TTSD), we have established policies and practices that respect the financial privacy of all individuals who use our trust company. We believe it is critical to comply with the laws and regulations designed to secure your financial privacy. Your relationship with us is very important and we want you to understand our policies and practices with respect to handling your information.

This Policy Applies to You

This policy applies to our relationships with individual clients who inquire about or obtain products or services from us for personal, family and household purposes.

Strict Security Measures

We take the security of information very seriously. We have established security standards and procedures to prevent unauthorized access to client information. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to guard client information. We educate our employees about the importance of confidentiality and client privacy. We take appropriate disciplinary measures to enforce employee responsibilities regarding client information.

Why We Collect Information

We collect information about you to:

- accurately identify you
- protect and administer your records, accounts and funds
- help us design or improve our products and services
- understand your financial needs
- save you time when you apply for new products and services
- offer you quality products and services
- comply with certain laws and regulations

Types and Categories of Information Collected

We collect and maintain your personal information so that we can provide our services to you. The types and categories of information that we collect and maintain about you include:

- Information we receive from you to accept or open an account or provide other services to you (such as your home address, telephone number, social security number, financial information and investment objectives)
- Information that we generate as part of the services we provide (such as account statements and other financial information)
- Information on your transactions with nonaffiliated third parties

We have established procedures so that the information we collect is accurate, current and complete. We are committed to working with you to promptly correct any inaccurate information.

Our Selective Sharing of Information

In order for TTSD to provide services to you, we do disclose your personal information in very limited instances, which include:

- Disclosures to affiliated companies or unaffiliated companies as permitted by law, including those who help TTSD service your account (such as providing account information to brokers and custodians)
- Pursuant to an agreement with you (such as the engagement agreement or any agreements with investment advisors, distribution advisors, and/or trust protectors or as appointed by you or as set forth in the trust)
- Other limited disclosures as permitted by law (such as required reports to government entities)

Former Clients

If you end your relationship with us, we will continue to adhere to the privacy policies and practices described in this notice.

We do not share your information with third parties for marketing purposes. We do not sell your information.
