

Hong Kong

The Hong Kong Stock Exchange's broad range of listing regimes makes it an attractive venue for China-based and international firms. Hong Kong's favourable tax system and experienced community of professional advisors makes SEHK a destination of choice for entrepreneurs, family business owners and investors.

Our People

Our team is led by senior practitioners with more than 15 years industry experience, who have held company secretary positions in numerous reputable State-Owned Enterprises and multinational companies listed in Hong Kong.

Our team has worked with lawyers and bankers, and advised chairmen, CEOs, CFOs, board directors and company secretaries through their pre-IPO, implementation and post-IPO administration phases. Our team provides dedicated and personal service to our clients, attention to detail, responsiveness, and practical and flexible approaches to finding the best solutions for our clients.

Trident Trust has had a presence in Hong Kong since 1992 and is able to deploy on behalf of its clients a team of experts in the field of company secretarial, trust and fund administration.

Our Expertise

We provide a full suite of listing corporate secretarial services, including corporate restructuring, corporate governance framework setup and implementation, advice on best practices and operational procedures for board meetings, and advice on compliance and statutory requirements, as well as preparation of annual and interim reports and announcements.

We are regularly involved in the coaching and training of board directors and company secretaries, advising them on corporate governance and company secretarial work.

We assist clients in liaising with the Hong Kong Companies Registry and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Our experienced trust team regularly assists with pre-IPO trust planning and helps with the establishment of pre-IPO trusts and EBTs.
